

Brown Armstrong CPAs Announces, Dr. K. Ken Shakoori, Joins the Firm to Manage the Business Valuation and Litigation Support Division

BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA (June 1, 2006) – Brown Armstrong Certified Public Accountants is pleased to welcome Dr. K. Ken Shakoori to their professional staff as the new Business Valuation and Litigation Support Manager.

Shakoori has more than 32 years of practical, consulting and teaching experience in business valuation, corporate finance and portfolio management fields. As the Director of Certified Financial Planning Program in Bakersfield, Shakoori has been heavily involved in financial planning.

His degrees include a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Masters in Business Administration (MBA specializing in finance management), Masters in Economic Development and Doctor of Philosophy in Financial Economics from Clark University in Worcester, Massachusetts. With research interests in the area of business valuation, merger, acquisition and financial management, he has been published in professional journals and also makes presentations at professional meetings.

Andrew Paulden, Managing Principal of the firm says, “We are pleased to be able to offer this valuable service to the Central Valley. “

Founded in 1974, Brown Armstrong has 68 employees and represents a broad range of clients including corporations, publicly and privately held businesses, nonprofit organizations, and government entities.

In addition to the firm’s audit, accounting and tax services, its accountants and consultants practice in the areas of risk assessment and Sarbanes-Oxley solutions, state and local tax, estate planning/wealth transfer, and information technology. It also performs peer reviews for other accounting firms. To learn more about Brown Armstrong visit www.bacpas.com.

Contact Information:

Deanna Blaise – Marketing Director

Office: (661) 324-4971

E-mail: dblaise@bacpas.com

